

As Asheville and the surrounding areas in Western North Carolina continue to recover from Hurricane Helene, we want to extend our heartfelt thanks to everyone who has reached out about our team—everyone is accounted for and safe.

We have been touched by the outpouring of support from so many clients and candidates. As many of you are aware, Summit is based in Asheville, North Carolina. Five (5) of our 15 associates live and work from offices here in Western North Carolina (WNC) and were temporarily displaced. We are happy to announce that as of yesterday (10/14/24) each is back in their respective home offices.

Thank you for your check-ins, words of encouragement, and flexibility as we adjusted. Many of you have asked if there is any way to help. Interestingly, two of Summit's nonprofit clients are emergency service providers to the thousands of people who still need support here in WNC. If you are inclined, please consider directing your support to The Community Foundation of Western North Carolina or to Bounty and Soul.

The Community Foundation of Western North Carolina is providing emergency, immediate grants to direct service providers in the 18-counties of Western North Carolina.

Bounty & Soul is a direct service provider that has partnered with World Kitchen to provide fresh produce, food, and supplies directly to the communities that were hardest hit. Bounty & Soul is taking food directly to the people who cannot access the public services.

As always, please reach out to discuss any search needs. We're grateful for your support and look forward to our continued partnership.
